

Mason does not know if Totten saw him initial it but he was present.

Schwartz was there on November 1, 1922 when Mason got the card.

There were no smudges on the card at that time.

Schwartz examined it and told Mason there were no fingerprints on it.

Schwartz, David, Totten, Fitzpatrick and Mason were there.

Schwartz never told Mason about any other card.